Closing date for applications	(MIDDAY) 1 July 2022 at 12:00 h³, Warsaw local time

1. BACKGROUND

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) has been established under the European Border and Coast Guard Regulation⁴. The agency was created on the foundations of the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (established under Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004), which has been coordinating operational activities at the EU external border since 2005.

Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland, and is in the process of significantly increasing the size of its staff to 2,500 to meet its expanding tasks.

The new European Border and Coast Guard Regulation provides for the establishment of a European Border and Coast Guard Standing Corps, which will consist of up to 10,000 operational staff by 2027, and will be deployed along the external land, sea and air borders of the European Union and the Schengen Area.

With the establishment of the Standing Corps - the first European law enforcement uniformed corps - Frontex offers a unique, pioneering opportunity to form part of the EU's operational arm for European integrated border management. The establishment and operations of the Standing Corps gives rise to various novel legal challenges and risks. The selected candidate will have a chance to significantly contribute to the application of the EU law in this area by developing creative legal solutions in cooperation with internal and external partners.

The Agency's key tasks include:

² For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) applicants for whom Article 55 the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) is applicable.

³ Date of publication: 2 June 2022.

⁴ Regulation (EU) 2019/1896 of 13 November 2019 on the European Border and Coast Guard (OJ L 295, 14.11.2019, p.1).

- Operational and technical assistance to the EU member states at their external borders by coordinating joint border control operations including deployment of vessels, aircraft and other equipment and border and coast guards from EU countries;
- Coordination of border surveillance and law enforcement activities being part of maritime security in cooperation with national authorities and EU agencies such as Europol, EMSA and EFCA;
- Situation monitoring of EU's external borders and risk analysis of all aspects of border and coast guard management, including assessment of the EU Member States' border control authorities' ability to face migratory pressure and different challenges at their external borders;
- Assisting Member States in returning nationals of non-EU countries who do not have the right to remain on the territory of the EU;
- Development of training programmes for European border and coast guards;
- Monitoring new technological developments in the field of border control and acting as an interface between research institutions, industry and national border and coast guard authorities;
- Cooperation with EU and international organisations in the area of border and coast guard management, security, and prevention of cross-border crime (including terrorism);
- Assist non-EU countries in the context of technical and operational cooperation on border management including return of non-EU nationals, in the framework of the EU external relations policy.

THE LEGAL AND PROCUREMENT UNIT (LPU)

The Legal and Procurement Unit (LPU) together with the Executive Affairs Unit (EAU) and the Human Resources Unit (HRU) are placed under the Governance Support Centre (GSC). The Media and Public Relations Office (MPR) is also established within the Division.

The Legal and Procurement Unit (LPU) provides expertise, support and advice to the Agency and its management. It manages and minimises legal risks related to the compliance with the rules governing Frontex activities, procurements, decisions, and internal procedures. It mitigates the inherent legal risks entailed in the expanding operational footprint of the Agency and the European Border and Coast Guard standing corps on the ground. It ensures the successful establishment of contracts to procure goods and services.

The Legal and Procurement Unit is divided into two sectors, the Legal Services Sector (LEG) and the Procurement Sector (PROC).

Procurement Sector (PROC)

Main tasks

- (a) Coordinating the drafting, planning, execution and monitoring of the annual procurement plan based on the multiannual acquisition strategy.
- (b) Providing advice on all procurement procedures to ensure compliance with the applicable legal and financial framework.
- (c) Providing training and organising awareness raising activities to Frontex entities dealing with procurement.
- (d) Providing expertise and support in the preparation, publication, opening and evaluation of tenders, contract award and signature.
- (e) Coordinating the conduct of thorough market analyses in cooperation with the business entities.

(f) Advising on and coordinating the use of joint procurement procedures with contracting authorities of Member States to cover operational needs and the interinstitutional procurement procedures with other EU institutions, agencies, bodies.

2. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Reporting to the Head of Procurement Sector, the Senior Procurement Officer should:

- Provide appropriate oversight over procurement processes under his/her responsibility from inception to award. This is to include the required initiation, evaluation, verification and analysis to ensure compliance with the legal framework and sound financial management.
- Specifically monitor the preparation and processing of all types of tender procedures.
- Provide analysis, advice, and support across Frontex on matters falling within procurement, including purchasing of heavy equipment and transportation means, with a practical, problem-solving approach.
- Provide training and support to Frontex' units and entities in dealing with procurement.
- Foster the development of working methods, common tools and procedures (including guidelines, templates, etc.) for effective procurement management within the Unit and across Frontex to efficiently meet changing objectives and priorities.
- Contribute to the identification, assessment and management of potential risks associated with Frontex procurements.
- Be actively involved in drafting, planning, implementing and monitoring of the annual procurement plan, based on Frontex procurement needs (with Frontex units and entities' input).
- Conduct market assessment and analysis of tenderers' financial viability.
- Implement Framework Contracts through Specific Orders and Specific Contracts and effective management of outsourced work and contractors to sustain value throughout the lifecycle of contracts.
- Be involved in the implementation and use of electronic management tools related to procurement.

3. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

3.1. Eligibility criteria (for external applicants⁵)

To be eligible, an applicant shall:

- Possess a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more (of full-time education);

or

Possess a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma followed by at least one year full-time professional experience, when the normal period of university education is at least three years (of full-time education);

⁵ For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) applicants (for whom Article 55 the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) is applicable) the eligibility criteria are defined in Article 12(2) of the CEOS.

Only qualifications that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are subject to the equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in EU Member States shall be taken into consideration.

Only the required education will be taken into account.

- Possess (by the closing date for applications) at least 9 years of proven full-time professional experience after the diploma was awarded and (at the same time) after the condition(s) described in criterion a) above are fulfilled; Professional experience will be taken into account after the award of the minimum qualification certifying the completion of the level of studies required above in the criterion a). Only duly documented professional activity is taken into account.

ANY GIVEN PERIOD OF STUDIES OR PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE MAY BE COUNTED ONLY ONCE. In order to be calculated as eligible, years of studies or professional experience to be taken into account shall not overlap with other periods of studies or professional experience, e.g. if the applicant had a full-time job and did freelance consultancy work in the evenings and weekends, the days spent on the latter will not be added to the period). In case of part-time work the professional experience will be calculated pro-rata in line with the workload stated by the applicant. Compulsory military service or equivalent civilian service accomplished after achieving the minimum qualification stated in the first two bullet points shall be taken into consideration as professional experience if the official documentation is provided.

- Produce evidence of thorough knowledge of one of the languages of the European Union and of satisfactory knowledge of another language of the European Union to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: B2 level);
- Be a citizen of one of the Member States of the European Union or the Schengen Associated Countries and enjoy full rights as its citizen;
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed on him/her by the laws of the country of citizenship concerning military service.

3.2. Selection criteria

Suitability of applicants will be assessed against the following criteria in different steps of the selection procedure. Certain criteria will be assessed/scored only for shortlisted applicants during interviews (and or tests):

3.2.1. Professional competences:

1. Degree in Law, Economics, Finance, Business Administration or related subjects
2. Very good knowledge of the EU Financial Regulation, its rules of application, and the EU Procurement framework generally
3. Familiarity with the EU public administration environment and internal control standards of the European Institutions, Agencies or Bodies
4. Excellent skills in drafting and reviewing procurement documentation and contracts (in English)

4.2.2. Besides, the following attributes would be considered advantageous:

5. Experience of at least five years of working in the service of a European Union institution, agency or body, or in an international organisation, or in a national body performing procurement and/or contract management-related duties
6. Professional experience in the acquisition and/or leasing of large assets
7. Experience in the implementation and use of electronic management tools related to procurement and contracts

4.2.3. Personal qualities and competences:

8. Capability to organise and manage work autonomously and with minimal supervision to deliver results, including the ability to cope with stress in relation to demanding tasks, a heavy workload and tight deadlines in a rapidly evolving work environment
9. Excellent inter-personal, negotiation and communication skills in English (written and spoken); ability to work collaboratively in a multi-cultural environment
10. High degree of responsibility and integrity, demonstrating professional and ethical behaviour

11. Sound judgment and the ability to handle sensitive issues
12. Strong sense of initiative and the ability to put forward creative solutions

4. INDEPENDENCE AND DECLARATION OF INTEREST

The selected applicant(s) will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in Union's interest and to make a declaration in relation to interests that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence.

5. EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

Frontex applies an equal opportunities policy and accepts applications without distinction on grounds of age, race, political, philosophical or religious conviction, sex or sexual orientation and regardless of disabilities, marital status or family situation.

6. SELECTION PROCEDURE

The selection procedure includes the following steps:

- After registration, each application is checked in order to verify whether it meets the eligibility criteria;
- All the eligible applications are evaluated by an appointed Selection Committee based on a combination of certain selection criteria defined in the vacancy notice (some criteria will be assessed/scored only for shortlisted applicants during interviews and/or tests). Certain selection criteria may be assessed/scored jointly and some criteria may be assessed/scored in two or more steps of the selection procedure;
- Best-qualified applicants who obtain the highest number of points within the application evaluation and who are matching best the evaluated selection criteria will be shortlisted and invited for a competency test and an interview; the names of the members of the Selection Committee will be disclosed to the applicants invited for the test and interview. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted;
- The test and interview will be conducted in English;
- During the interviews and tests, the Selection Committee will examine the profiles of shortlisted applicants and assess their relevancy for the post in question. Certain selection criteria may be assessed/scored jointly and some criteria may be assessed/scored in two or more steps of the selection procedure. Certain general competencies will not be tested for internal applicants interested in an internal mobility and for applicants from other EU Agencies interested in an inter-agency mobility. At least one part of the qualifying written test will be assessed based on anonymized answers;
- As a result of the interview and test, the Selection Committee will recommend the most suitable applicant(s) for the post in question to the Executive Director of Frontex. An additional interview with the Executive Director and/or another relevant manager may be arranged before the Executive Director takes the final decision;
- Suitable applicants will be proposed for a reserve list, which may also be used to fill similar vacant posts depending on the needs of Frontex. This reserve list will be valid for 1 year (the validity period may be extended). Applicants should note that the placement on the reserve list does not guarantee an employment offer.
- Each interviewed applicant will be notified in writing on outcome of his/her application.

The work and deliberations of the Selection Committee are strictly confidential and any contact of an applicant with its members is absolutely forbidden.

Applicants may be requested to present, at any stage of the selection, documents which will support the information contained in their application form such as originals of their diploma(s), evidence of professional experience clearly indicating the starting, finishing dates and scope of work and workload. Failure to provide such an evidence may lead to disqualification of the respective part of the application.

7. APPOINTMENT AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The most successful applicant will be selected and appointed by the Executive Director of Frontex. In order to be engaged, the appointed applicant shall:

- Be available for the job at short notice (not later than 4 months after the job offer is made);
- Produce the appropriate character references as to his/her suitability for the performance of duties (a criminal record certificate or equivalent certificate, not older than six months) and a declaration in relation to interests that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence;

education cycle (from Nursery to Secondary level finishing with the European Baccalaureate exam) will be available in September 2024.

Moreover, the headquarters agreement with the Polish authorities is effective as of 1 November 2017. Under this agreement the Polish authorities may provide the following main benefits to Frontex expatriate staff⁹:

- (a) in case the appropriate education level is not available yet for a child in the accredited European School in Warsaw - reimbursement of tuition cost of each dependent child attending a school (up to and including secondary school) on Polish territory up to a limit of 35 000 PLN per school year;
- (b) reimbursement of VAT on purchases of main household effects to assist a newcomer to settle in Warsaw;
- (c) reimbursement of VAT on a purchase of a private car (this entitlement is renewable after 36 months).

An (accredited¹⁰) European School is gradually being set-up in Warsaw to allow dependent children of all Frontex staff (including Polish nationals) to attend a (tuition-free) European-type multilingual education.

Staff is entitled to annual leave of two working days per each complete calendar month of service and to additional days of leave depending on the grade and age. Moreover, two and a half leave days are granted every year to the staff members entitled to the expatriation or foreign residence allowance for the purpose of visiting their home country. In addition, there are on average 18 public holidays per year. Special leave is granted for certain circumstances such as marriage, birth or adoption of a child, etc.

Frontex being a knowledge-based organization acknowledges the importance of training provided to its staff. Frontex provides general and technical nature training as well as professional development opportunities that are discussed annually during the staff performance appraisal.

Throughout the period of service staff is a member of the EU pension scheme. The pension is granted after completing a minimum of 10 years' service and after reaching the pensionable age of 66 years. The pensionable age for staff recruited before 1 January 2014 varies between 60 and 65 years. Pension rights acquired in one or more national schemes before starting to work at Frontex may be transferred into the EU pension system.

Staff is covered 24/7 and worldwide by the Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS). Staff is insured against sickness, the risk of occupational disease and accident as well as entitled under certain conditions to a monthly unemployment allowance, the right to receive payment of invalidity allowance and travel insurance.

For further information on working conditions please refer to the Staff Regulations and the CEOS.

Frontex requires selected candidates to undergo a vetting procedure executed by the National Security Authority of the candidates' state of citizenship in order to obtain a personnel security clearance. The level of the latter depends on the specific post/position. For this post, the required level of clearance is specified on the title page of the Vacancy Notice. Candidates who currently hold a valid personnel security clearance at the above-mentioned level (or higher) may not need to obtain a new one, pending confirmation from their respective National Security Authority. The National Security Authority of the candidate shall provide Frontex, with an opinion or a personnel security clearance in accordance with relevant national legislation. In case selected candidates do not currently hold a valid security clearance at the above-mentioned level, Frontex will request such from the National Security Authority of the candidates' state of citizenship. In case of a failure to obtain the required personnel security clearance or if the National Security Agency issues a negative opinion at the above-mentioned level after the signature of the contract of employment Frontex has the right to terminate the contract of employment.

8. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

Frontex ensures that applicants' personal data are processed in accordance with Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the European Union, laid down by Council Regulation (EEC, Euratom, ECSC No 259/68)¹², mentioning the reference number of the selection procedure, at the following address:

Frontex
Human Resources Unit
Plac Europejski 6
00-844 Warsaw
Poland

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts to run from the time the applicant is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her or from the date of publication of final outcome on Frontex website.

Applicants also have a possibility to complain to the European Ombudsman. Please note that complaints made to the European Ombudsman have no direct effect on the decision taken by Frontex in regard to your application and on the time period laid down in Article 91 of the Staff Regulations. Under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to Frontex.

10. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Note: It is required to upload the digital application form saved in its original electronic dynamic PDF format (not scanned). Do not use any e-mail communication to submit your application (for exceptional circumstances see point 6 below) - such an application will be automatically disregarded and will not be recorded and further processed.

Frontex Application Form is to be downloaded (as a dynamic PDF form) from Frontex website under the link provided next to the Reference Number of the post/position. This digital application form is specifically created only for this selection procedure (and shall not be reused for another procedure).

The Frontex Application Form must:

- Be opened in a PDF reader in a MS Windows equipped computer - the recommended version of the PDF reader is Adobe Acrobat Reader DC (version 2021.001.20155. You may download a free version here: <https://get.adobe.com/uk/reader/>).
- Not be manipulated or altered. The form is digitally signed and protected against any manipulation or changes. Therefore, applicants shall not try to manipulate and/or alter it - in such a case the digital signature will disappear and the application form will become invalid for subsequent processing resulting in an automatic rejection of such submission.
- Be completed in English. Fields, where you may enter your input, are highlighted in light blue colour. Fields marked with an asterisk (*) indicate a required input. You should be concise, the space for your input is limited by the size of the text boxes.
- Be saved and named as follows: 'SURNAME_RCT-2022-00073'.
- Be submitted to Frontex - after saving - by uploading it to this URL link:
<https://microsite.frontex.europa.eu/en/recruitments/RCT-2022-00073>
- In case you have technical issues with filling/saving/uploading your electronic application form, you may write to us (in advance of the closing date for submission of applications) at jobs@frontex.europa.eu.

In case you submit more than one application for this procedure, Frontex will only assess the latest one and will automatically disregard all your previous applications.

If at any stage of the selection procedure it is established that any of the requested information provided by an applicant is false or misleading, the applicant in question will be disqualified.

¹² OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p. 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1023/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2013, OJ L 287, 29.10.2013, p. 15.

Applicants shortlisted for an interview will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in the application. Do not, however, attach any supporting or supplementary documentation with your application until you have been asked to do so by Frontex.

Incomplete applications, applications uploaded after the deadline, sent by e-mail or applications using inappropriate or altered/manipulated application forms will be automatically disregarded by the system and will not be processed further.

Due to the large volume of applications, Frontex regrets that only applicants invited for the test and interview will be notified about the outcomes. The status of the selection procedure is to be found on Frontex website.

Due to high volume of selection procedures handled by Frontex, the period between the closing date for the submission of applications and the final shortlisting of applicants for an interview may take more than two months.

The closing date (and time) for the submission of applications is provided on the title page of the Vacancy Notice.

Please keep a copy of the automatically generated submission code that proves that you have submitted/uploaded your application to Frontex.

Applicants are strongly recommended not to wait until the last day to submit their applications.

Frontex cannot be held responsible for any last-minute malfunction due to an overload of the system or for other technical issues applicants may eventually encounter in the very last moment before the deadline.
